The 6th IEEE Magnetics Society Summer School

JUNE 9-14, 2013

ASSISI, ITALY

The 6th IEEE Magnetics Society Summer School will be held in Assisi, a middle-age town close to the University of Perugia, Italy on June 9-14, 2013. The school is designed for graduate students studying magnetism. It will consist of lectures by international experts and will include poster presentations by participating graduate students. The program will cover both fundamentals and advanced topics in magnetism.

Financial support will be awarded to approximately 75 students from around the world. Awardees will be provided with free room and board and will be reimbursed for most of the cost of economy round trip airfares or equivalent ground transportations. The Summer School is open to current MS or PhD students who are members of the IEEE Magnetics Society (at the time of attendance) and have not attended previous summer schools. The application requires a recommendation from a faculty member. Preference will be given to students who have a recommendation from a current member of IEEE Magnetics Society.
